

New Literature Section

The new Literature section on our Web site offers a convenient way to view or download our brochures: mechosystems.com/literature

Find literature on one of our most recent projects, the Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health in Las Vegas. Designed by Gehry Partners, no two windows are the same. Find out how we were able to design and install our systems successfully. Included are ElectroShade® brackets, shades, and SolarTrac® control system to enhance the building's interior comfort, views, and energy usage. To view the Lou Ruvo brochure click here: mechosystems.com/louruvo

The brochure on the McDonough Iceland Collection® highlights our collaboration with architect William McDonough on our newest series of recyclable shade cloths. It features the photographs by Mr. McDonough, and how we've translated them into shade cloth that is both beautiful and sustainable. Check out the four standard patterns and 16 colorways here: mechosystems.com/mcdonough
